

POPE SHENOUDA III COPTIC ORTHODOX

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

TIMETABLE FOR SUMMER 2016

The lectures start at 7.00 pm 72 Wollongong Rd. Arncliffe, adjacent to St. Mark's Cathedral. Distance studies students will have access to their study material and exams through the College's online website: www.mycoptictheology.com

TUESDAY: APOLOGETICS II

Lectures commence on 17th November

Lecturer: Fr. Antonios Kaldas

Why should we think that Christianity is the true religion? What evidence is there for Christ its founder? Why does the God of the Old Testament seem so different in the New? How does Orthodox theology overcome many atheist criticisms in a way that other Christian theologies can't? These are the kinds of questions we will tackle in this course. You need not have taken the earlier course to benefit from this one.

(Fees :$ 80.00)

WEDNESDAY: RITUAL THEOLOGY

Lectures commence on 18th November 2015

Lecturer: Fr. Tadros El-Bakhouri

The young members of our church today have a tangible need to identify how the church's rituals and beliefs reflect her spiritual beauty and the sublime sacred meaning contained in each rite. This subject lights the way before those who wish to have a deeper appreciation of rituals of the church. (Fees: $ 80.00)

THURSDAY: CHURCH HISTORY II

Lectures commence on 19th November 2015

Lecturer: Mrs. Nadine Samir

This course focuses on the severe theological and Christological conflicts that the church and its leaders were under from the end of the third century to the middle of the fifth century. The reasons for the first split in the church and the recent attempts for unity. The Arab conquest of Egypt and the the first five centuries of the Arab rule.
